

Streetscapes

DHA will maintain and reinforce the existing landscape character of Academy Close as an attractive setting for a new integrated housing development that meets modern lifestyle expectations of Defence members.

The proposed architectural character and materials palette is calm and reiterates its landscape setting. While referencing the broader Defence precincts of ADFA and Duntroon, the new development is designed to sit comfortably in its Campbell context.

Indicative perspective - view from Truscott Street

Indicative perspective - looking down Truscott Street